ABSTRACT One of the most important drug-related problems in patients with chronic kidney disease (CKD) is medication dosing errors. Many medications.

If levels are high, your physician can adjust the dose or discontinue the drug. "Drug Information Handbook", Charles F. Lacy, Lora L. Armstrong, et al., 2009.
